

FIONA HALL: UNEASY SEASONS

NGV

PRIMARY EXHIBITION

WHO LIVES HERE?

Recommended for Years F-6

All living things from animals to microscopic organisms have a place on planet Earth. Inside a large tree-house, in a setting inspired by the beauty and wonder of the natural world, Fiona Hall asks children to populate the space with their creations of real and imagined things through making activities. Over the exhibition period numerous species, brought to life by children, will make this space their new home.

Cost FREE (1hr, self-guided)

SECONDARY EXHIBITION

SEND A MESSAGE

Recommended for Years 7-12

A darkened forest-inspired interior is Hall's environment for young people to express their feelings about the current state of the world. Conscious of the contemporary issues and current trends influencing their lives and shaping their futures, teens are invited to create an emoji to represent their feelings and display in the space.

EXTENDED PROGRAMS FOR STUDENTS

UNEASY SEASONS

Recommended for Years 9-12

Following a self-guided viewing of Fiona Hall: Uneasy Seasons, participate in a workshop inspired by the exhibition. Students will consider Fiona Hall's use of imagery from the natural world as they design a mixed media poster that visually communicates an environmental, political or social message. Ideal for secondary students of Visual Communication & Design, this workshop will ask students to think about relationships between text and image, visual hierarchy, and the elements and principles of design.

Please note: allow time (at least 30 minutes) for a self-guided viewing of the Fiona Hall: Uneasy Seasons exhibition prior to your program booking. To ensure access to the emoji activity, secondary school groups are strongly encouraged to book a activity session in the exhibition.

Cost $10 (1 hr)
