FAMILY STORIES

N G

Julie Dowling is a Badimaya artist from Western Australia.

Julie's artworks are about her family and Aboriginal people in Australia. Her artwork Federation Series 1901–2001, is a series of ten portraits of her family members. Each portrait shows words and pictures about big events in the person's life.

This painting from the series is called Ronnie 1970–1980 and is of Julie's mum. The words and pictures surrounding the portrait depict this time in her life as an activist for Aboriginal rights. See the entire artwork at ngv.melbourne/collection.

Activism means taking action to try and make a positive change for people.

Protest marches are a type of activism.

DRAW A PORTRAIT

- 1 Your first day of school, loosing a tooth or meeting your best friend for the first time these are some important events in our lives. Use the templates below to draw a portrait and pictures of important events around it. You can choose between drawing yourself or someone else!
- 2 Try calling your grandparents, cousins, aunties or uncles and ask them to list some important moments from their lives.

Share your creations by using #NGVEveryDay and tag @ngvmelbourne to be featured.

Julie Dowling, Ronnie 1970–1980, 2001, National Gallery of Victoria, Melbourne.
Purchased through the NGV Foundation with the assistance of Rupert Myer, Governor, 2001

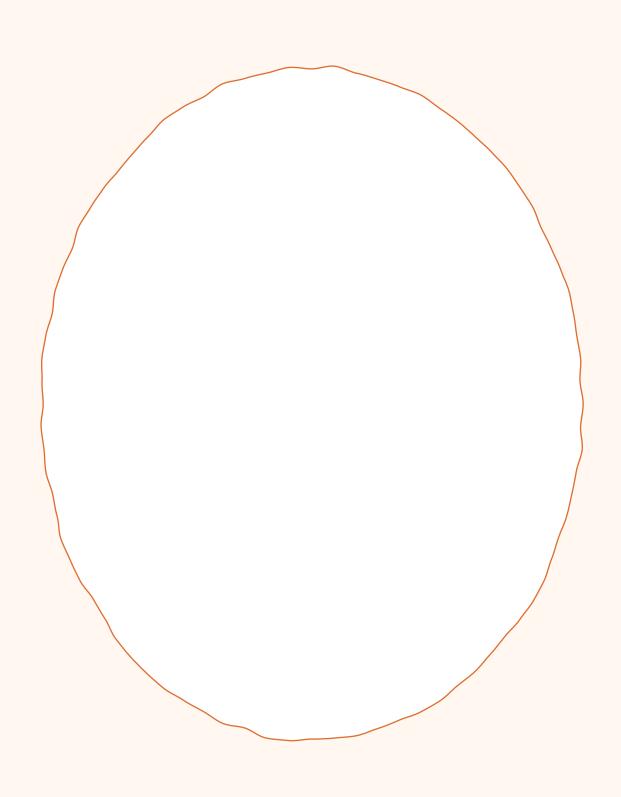

© Julie Dowling/Licensed by Copyright Agency, Australia

MY SELF-PORTRAIT

Name

Age

N G

MY _____PORTRAIT

Name _____Age _____

N G

